

Become a School Governor!

What does it involve?

- Governing boards typically meeting once every half-term though you might need to visit schools in between.
- You will need to read papers and prepare for board meetings.
- The commitment is approximately 5 hours per month, depending on what additional responsibilities you take on.
- Meetings typically happen outside of office hours.

What do you get out of it?

- Board-level experience which is great for your CV, will help with future jobs and career progression.
- Meet a range of diverse people, across a range of sectors.
- Give back to the local community and play an active role in helping schools and academies to deliver excellent education for our young people.
- Develop new skills in leadership, management, and organisation.
